Farmingville, NY - On May 8, Councilman Kevin LaValle was honored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars William F. Taylor Post 9486 in Lake Ronkonkoma for his efforts in the aftermath of Super Storm Sandy that included the restoration of their building. Post 9486 members include veterans who have served our nation in every military conflict since World War II, including the current conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan. Pictured left to right are Post 9486 Commander Matthew Clennan and Councilman LaValle.

Councilman LaValle said, "It is truly an honor to be acknowledged by an organization whose members have sacrificed so much in defense of freedom around the world. I was happy to do what I could to help the VFW after Super Storm Sandy and I appreciate their recognition."
